

Website Privacy Policy

CU Phosco is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. This policy explains how we use the information we collect about you and the procedures that we have in place to safeguard your privacy.

The information we collect and how we use it

When you register with CU Phosco and/or place an order, we need to know your name, delivery address, account details and e-mail address. This information allows us to fulfil your order and notify you of the status of your order.

We may also use your information for the purpose of providing you with information about any special offers or features of our web site which we think may be of interest to you and for related marketing purposes. We monitor customer traffic on an aggregate basis in order to help us develop and improve our web site for the benefit of our customers.

How we protect your information

The internet is not a secure medium, however we keep your information confidential and store it on a secure server which is password protected and hidden behind a firewall from the outside world. CU Phosco internal procedures cover the storage, access and disclosure of your information. We use your information only as set out in this Policy and will not sell or pass your information on to any third parties without first obtaining your consent.

Your consent

By submitting your information you consent to the use of that information as set out in this Policy. If we change our Privacy Policy we will post the changes on this page so that you may be aware of them. Because the Internet infrastructure is global, and it is not possible to predict the routes that information sent over the Internet will take, the information you provide may be transferred temporarily via a route which takes it outside the European Economic Area as it passes between you and us. By submitting your information you consent to this transfer.
